

Scarborough Camera Club

Membership Application 2016/2017 Season

For the period beginning on the date of acceptance to August 31, 2017.

To be accepted as a member of the SCC each person is required to annually read and agree to the terms and conditions outlined in this membership application.

Membership Period: The club's fiscal and operating year runs September 1 – August 31.

General meetings occur between September and Mid May.

Membership fee: $70.00 per person, and there is no financial offset or rebate for a partial year's membership.

Non - Monetary Membership Obligation: The club's survival, as well as the quality of the membership experience is dependent on the participation of individual members in organizing, or helping to organize events and activities, assisting in the management of the club's affairs, or contributing in other ways based on their personal skills and expertise. As such, in addition to the payment of a membership fee, each Scarborough Camera Club member is expected to provide a few hours per year in volunteer time when called upon to do so.
